Big Elm.

Miss Fannie Vaughn, visited Mrs. J. A. Turner at Big Elm last Friday.

Mr. and J. A. Turner, were at Denmark Thursday.

Mr. W. A. Collins, was at Big Elm, one day last week on business.

Mr. L. C. Graves, of Esto, was at Big Elm Friday.

The farmers of this section are not uneasy about their wheat freezing out, for it is so short the ice can not get a grip on it sufficient to pull it up.

There was a candy breaking at Mr. Jasper Cundiff's, Wednesday night, in honor of Mr. Elmon Aaron, which was largely attended and enjoyed by all.

Mr. Virgil Aaron, an old neighbor and friend who now lives near Denmark, was in our midst one day last week looking hale and hearty with usual smiles.

George Coffey, of Montpelier, and Mrs. Mollie Helm, were happily married near this place last Sunday morning. Mr. C. M. Dener in his impressive way solemnized the rites.

Mrs. Mollie Gifford, is improving. She has had a very bad case of typhoid fever.

Mr. Tilden Coffey, is improving from a case of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. Welby Cundiff and family, Anna Texas, came in on a visit about the first of the year. Stopping in Columbia first at Mr. and Mrs. Tim Collins, who are parents of Mrs. Cundiff's. She has two sisters and one brother, at this place, and one sister at Russell Springs. They expect to leave for their home soon. Mr. B. H. Bradshaw, will go with them to Texas where he expects to make his future home.

Mr. G. W. Coffey who came in from Texas a few nights ago left this place about 5 o'clock p. m. for Fielden Coffey, his kinsman, about two miles away; got lost in hills on the head waters of Cabin Fork and wandered around for four hours before he arrived at his destination.

There was a singing at Mr. J. C. Bradshaw's one day last week. On account of bad weather there was not a large crowd present but enough to render some very fine peices in vocal to themusic satisfaction of all present.

The weather is bad yet, and we are ready and have been all the time for its bombardment but we had rather it would raise the signal. We are like Bill Brown was when he was eating Jowland Greens for twentyfive or thirty times, he said he would like to have a change.

Mr. Will Melson, of Crocus, has bought appart of the Sparks farm on the head waters of Cabin Fork, and has moved in, the price un known.
